

Information on handling of personal data in connection with the general meeting

1. Introduction

The purpose of this information sheet is to provide you as a shareholder, proxy holder or advisor with certain information as to the collection, processing and storing of personal data in connection with the holding of general meetings in NTG Nordic Transport Group A/S, CVR no. 12546106, Hammerholmen 47, 2650 Hvidovre, Denmark (the "Company").

The Company acts as the data controller, which implies that the Company is responsible for your personal data being processed in accordance with the applicable data protection laws. If you have any questions, please contact the Company by sending an email to personaldatarequests@ntg.com.

Below you will find a description of the personal data, which the Company may collect, process and store, as well as of the purpose of and the background for processing the information.

In sections 2 - 3 certain general information is provided in respect of convening general meetings, the publication of documents, notification of participation, granting proxy and voting by correspondence. Sections 4 - 9 concern a number of more specific issues, including sanctions screening, submitting questions prior to the general meeting, submitting proposals to be transacted at the general meeting, the right to speak and posing questions at the general meeting, webcast, and minutes of the general meeting.

Reference is made to the Company's privacy policy, which is available on the website.

2. Notice of general meeting

Notice of a general meeting in the Company must be submitted based on the information registered in the register of shareholders, including information on name, address and any email address. The Company will in this respect process your personal data for the purpose of forwarding the notice of the general meeting to the shareholders, including enabling the shareholders to exercise their fundamental administrative rights at the general meeting.

The notice of the general meeting including the agenda will be published and forwarded in accordance with applicable law and the Company's articles of association and will thus be published as a company announcement through Nasdaq Copenhagen, on the Company's website and be forwarded by email or ordinary mail to the shareholders, who have requested this.

In continuation of the publication of the notice of the general meeting, certain other documents relevant for the general meeting will be published on the Company's website, including the complete proposals and forms to grant proxy or vote by correspondence.

The purpose of the Company's processing of personal data in relation to the notice of the general meeting, as described above, is to secure the Company's compliance with its statutory requirement pursuant to the Danish Companies Act, and thus the processing is carried out to comply with a statutory requirement.

The notice of the general meeting including the agenda and the other documents will be available on the website for a period of 5 years from the end of the financial year in which the notice is distributed.

The Company may store the notice of the general meeting including the agenda, the complete proposals and forms for granting proxy and voting by correspondence, until it is no longer necessary for the Company to store the information in order to protect the Company's and the shareholders' interests, following which it will be deleted.

3. Notification of participation, granting proxy and voting by correspondence

When you as a shareholder provide notification of your or an advisor's participation at the general meeting or grant a proxy to a third party, the Company will issue an admission card (potentially with voting cards), which will contain certain information about you, any proxy holder and/or advisor representing you, including name, address, email address and shareholding. Admission cards will be provided either electronically or will be forwarded by email or ordinary mail.

Notification of your participation implies that the Company will process your personal data based on the information registered about you in the register of shareholders or provided by yourself through the Investor Portal. The processing of your personal data also takes place in connection with granting voting proxy, proxy to the board of directors or voting by correspondence. Similarly, processing of your personal data will take place, if you vote at the general meeting (in writing or electronically).

If you grant proxy to a third party and/or register attendance of an advisor, the Company will collect and process personal data about such persons (name and address). Collecting and processing data takes place for the purpose of ensuring that the relevant persons are granted access to the Company's general meeting and ensuring that they can exercise their rights.

We therefore process personal data to comply with our statutory requirements pursuant to the rules regarding shareholders' rights in the companies act, and thus the processing is carried out to comply with a statutory requirement.

The Company may store information about registration of attendance, proxies and votes by correspondence until it is no longer necessary for the Company to store the information in order to protect the Company and the shareholders' interests, following which the information will be deleted.

4. Screening of individuals subject to EU, UK or US sanctions

The Company is obligated to ensure that persons subject to economic sanctions by the European Union, the United Kingdom or the United States of America, do not exercise shareholders' rights during the general meeting. To fulfil this legal obligation, the Company may process personal data about shareholders participating in the general meeting against relevant sanctions lists. This includes the name and home address of the shareholder on the basis of information registered in the register of shareholders.

5. Submitting questions prior to the general meeting

When submitting written questions prior to the general meeting, you must document your status as a shareholder or a proxy holder, and in this respect collection and processing of your personal data will take place. Collection and processing of personal data will in such event be based on the Company's legitimate interests in being able to identify you, in order for you to be able to exercise your rights as a shareholder to submit questions.

If questions are replied to in writing, the questions, including your name, and the Company's replies will be presented at the general meeting.]

The Company may store information about questions submitted until it is no longer necessary for the Company to store the information in order to protect the Company's and the shareholders' interests, following which the information will be deleted.

Reference is also made to section 7 concerning the right to speak and pose questions at the general meeting.

6. Submission of proposals

In connection with a request for including a specific issue on the agenda for the general meeting, your personal data and the contents of the proposal will be collected and processed by the Company. Your personal data will in this respect be collected based on the Company's legitimate interests in being able to identify you as a shareholder in order to enable you to exercise your right to submit proposals to be included on the agenda.

If your request fulfils the requirements, the proposal and your name will be included (i) on the agenda and in the complete proposals and (ii) on the forms for granting proxy or voting by correspondence, which will subsequently be published in accordance with the rules in this respect.

Reference is also made to section 2 concerning the notice of general meeting and section 10 concerning the preparation of the minutes of the general meeting.

7. The right to speak and pose questions at the general meeting

If you choose to speak at the general meeting, e.g. in order to pose questions to the board of directors' report or the annual report, you will be requested to document that you are a shareholder or a proxy holder, and in this respect personal data about you will be collected and processed based on the Company's legitimate interests in being able to identify you in order for you to exercise your right to speak and potentially pose questions at the general meeting.

Reference is also made to section 9 concerning the preparation of the minutes of the general meeting.

8. Webcast

The general meeting will be webcasted live on the Company's website and the investor portal. The recording will also be available on the Company's website and investor portal after the general meeting. The webcast does not allow for live participation in the general meeting, e.g. voting and questions.

The recording, which includes both picture and sound, will cover the area around the podium, the presentation screen and the platform at the general meeting, and thus your personal data will be collected and processed, if you choose to speak at the general meeting. Before you address the assembly, you must document your status as a shareholder or proxy holder, and by speaking from the platform (e.g. in connection with posing a question in respect of the annual report) the Company will collect and process your personal data, including your name and your picture, in connection with the recording.

Your personal data will be collected based on the Company's legitimate interests in being able to identify you as a shareholder or proxy holder in order to enable you to exercise your rights at the general meeting, and in order to ensure transparency concerning the transactions at the general meeting, also in order for the shareholders, who are unable to attend the general meeting in person, to follow the proceedings by watching the recording.

The recording will be available on the Company's investor portal for a period of up to 5 years after the general meeting, following which it will be deleted.

9. Minutes of the general meeting

After the general meeting, the Company / the chairman of the meeting (on behalf of the Company) will prepare minutes of the general meeting, and therefore your personal data may, in continuation of the original collection and processing of your personal data, e.g. when submitting proposals, cf. section 6, or when exercising the right to speak at the general meeting, cf. section 7, be additionally processed in this respect. The minutes must be prepared in accordance with the Danish Companies Act, and the processing of your personal data thus takes place in order to comply with a statutory requirement.

When submitting a proposal to be included on the agenda, it is not possible to insist on not having your name stated in the notice of the general meeting (or on forms) and thus you cannot insist on not having your name stated in the minutes either.

The minutes of the general meeting will be made available on the Company's website for a period of 5 years, and the minutes will thus during this period be available to the shareholders and to the general public.

The Company may store the minutes of the general meeting until it is no longer necessary for the Company to store the information for the purpose of protecting the Company's and the shareholders' interests, including for the purpose of documenting the transactions and resolutions made at the general meeting. This implies that minutes will not be deleted.
